Paris Newspaper Quotes Gen. Pershing As Telling Gen. Foch That We Would Consider It Great Honor If Our Troops Were in Present Great Battle

(By Associated Press)
Paris, March 29.—General Pershing called on General Foch at headquarters yesterday, according to a Paris newspaper, and placed at his disposal the whole resources of the American army for employment in the battle now in progress.

hold it a great honor for our troops were they engaged in the present great battle. There is at this moment no other question than that of fighting. Infantry, artillery, aviation, all that we have are yours to dispose of them as you will. Others are coming which are as numerous as will be necessary." General Foch placed General Pershing's offer before the council at the front, the newspaper says.

KITTERY BOY MEETS WITH BAD INJURY

Sustains Fracture of Hip, Knee and Shoulder Blade.

Richard E. Prust, 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Prust of Williams avenue, Kittery, was badly injured in that town today. The accident happened near the navy yard station, where the boy attempted to climb on the rear of a coal wagon, which was standing in the highway at the time. Just as the boy got his foot on the spoke of the wheel the horse started and his body was carried upward until it became pinned between the side of the wagon and the wheel. The driver knew nothing of what had happened until he heard the cries of the youngster. He rushed back to the boy's assistance and had hard work to extricate him, as his little body was wedged in so tightly. He was brought to the Portsmouth hospital, where Doctors Luce and Shapleigh found that he was suffering from a fracture of the right hip, knee and right shoulder.

British Army Headquarters in France, March 29.—The Germans were able to penetrate 12 miles east of Amiens in the region south of the Somme only by means of heavy massed attacks late yesterday which forced the British gradually back. It was in this district south of the Somme that the enemy continued to make their greatest efforts. The British are battling stubbornly and resisting against the German advance, which has been steady.

London, March 29.—North of the Somme the British have maintained their position and gained ground in some places by several counter attacks, the war office announced today.

After holding their lines all day south of the river, in the face of repeated assaults by numerically superior enemy forces, the British retired a short distance from their advance position at some points. The Germans again suffered heavy losses. The British took many prisoners.

Paris, March 29.—Violent fighting continued last night in the region of Montdidier, the war office announced today. In spite of German counter attacks the French held the villages which they took yesterday in this region.

Monchel was taken by the French troops. North of Montdidier French and British troops held up the German thrust. The German losses have been extremely heavy.

RYE

Rye, March 23.—A regiment of young men were marching in Baltimore with a banner on which was written: "We have given ourselves; what have you given?" It is a question we must all answer. We cannot all give our blood; but we can help to give bread to the needy world. The most indifferent among us can no longer overlook the food situation, and if it continues to grow in seriousness there will be certain foods which it will not only be selfish and unpatriotic to use, but which will be impossible to obtain. It is the wise woman therefore who avails herself of every opportunity to learn the methods of war cooking which are being shown all over the country. Forearm with the knowledge of how and what to substitute, she will still be able to provide her family with a nutritious and palatable diet and she will be doing her share in sending the sorely needed wheat and other staples to the armies who are fighting to save the world. The next food demonstration will be given at the Wedgewood school, Rye Center at 2:30, Wednesday, April 3. The subject is "Warlike Menu," and Miss Emerson's request that those present be prepared with a balanced menu for a day or a week, for discussion.

BE PRETTY! TURN
GRAY HAIR DARK

Look Young! Nobody Can Tell If You Use Grandmother's Simple Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur properly compounded, bring back the natural color and luster to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays by asking at any drug store for Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound you get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair as it does, it so naturally, and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Spradley. Mayor Spradley was followed by Mr. Whittemore, who gave the boys a farewell address.

Susie Brown was before Judge Nason in the municipal court Thursday morning, charged with being a common street walker. She entered a plea of not guilty. After considering the evidence, the court continued the case for sentence.

He is making an effort for organized garden work for the school children this year. Mr. Brown also visited the graded schools. It is estimated that 100 gardens will be planted by the pupils of the high school.

Portsmouth Should Wake Up.

Edward A. Filene of Boston, chairman of the War Shipping Committee of the United States Chamber of Commerce, offered some important suggestions in Washington the other day relative to the speeding up of ship building. It is recognized on all sides that ships and more ships are among the most pressing needs of the country today, and there is a general feeling that the construction of them is not going forward as fast as it should. Mr. Filene says the business men of the country should be made more familiar with the situation than they are and that they should organize, particularly in the ship-building centers, to do what lies in their power to speed up the work. He says they should meet frequently with the ship builders and go over the problem in a way to find out how they can be of assistance, as they would be able to aid materially in the way of procuring materials, in improving transportation and in other ways.

The question of housing is one of the utmost importance in most of the shipbuilding centers. The rush of business occasioned by the war has called in thousands of new workmen, many of whom are unable to find homes for their families in the towns where their work is, with the result that they have to live in distant places and spend time and money in traveling to and from their work. It is better in all cases for workmen to live within a reasonable distance from the places where they are employed, and especially is this true of ship builders at a time when the work is as pressing as it is now.

For this reason the business men and organizations of Portsmouth should awake to the situation here and resolve to do all in their power for the betterment of conditions. All know what the situation is. The rush of business at the navy yard and the opening of the great plants at Newington and Freeman's Point have furnished employment to an army of workers, many of whom are unable to find homes here. It would be better for them and better for Portsmouth if they could all live here, and it seems to this paper that an effort should be made to render it possible for more of them to make their homes in this city or its immediate suburbs.

Congress has appropriated $50,000,000 for the construction of homes for shipbuilders, and, as this paper pointed out a few days ago, it would seem to be in order to attempt to have something in that line done here. If the business men of the city would combine in an united and intelligent effort in this direction it is not only possible, but highly probable, that gratifying results would follow, results that would be of the greatest benefit to the contractors, the workmen, the city and the government.

The matter is worth considering. Portsmouth is reaping large benefits from the activities that war operations have developed here and cannot afford to leave any stone unturned to help the good work along.

Prof. E. G. Ritzman of the State Experiment Station has developed a pig club plan for the benefit of men living in cities and villages who would like to do a little something along the "pork barrel" line on their own account. Pork is pork these days and will continue to be so till the end of the war, and thrifty citizens may find it to their advantage to look into Professor Ritzman's plan, notwithstanding the suspiciousness of his name.

A writer to a New York newspaper has pointed out how to set the clocks ahead when the time comes for saving daylight. But should this suffice? Ought there not to be a "commission" for this important task?

The Postal Department is experimenting in the transportation of parcel post matter by auto truck. And this seems fully as practical as the attempt to transport ordinary mail by airplane.

Governor Keyes has designated April 25 as Fast Day, and those who are willing to live up to the food regulations should have no trouble in observing it properly this year.

The air gun has been a common plaything for years, and some are now inclined to think the "hot air" gun has arrived. It is said to shoot 76 miles.

Secretary Baker is mixing in very distinguished company while abroad, and the European leaders do not appear to regard him as a failure.

March has behaved very well for March and will leave no cause for complaint when it takes its departure.

The German offensive is indeed a powerful movement. It is said to be actually waking up Congress.

MISS EMERSON GIVES FOOD DEMONSTRATION

Miss Dorothy Emerson of New Hampshire State College, gave a food demonstration on "What to Eat in War Time," at the Woman's Building on Middle street Thursday afternoon, this being the sixth in the series of such talks given in this city.

Throughout New Hampshire there is a system to divide the state into sections so all the districts may be covered by a speaker who talks on food conservation once a month. The towns and cities of the state have been organized in national defense work by Mrs. Mary I. Wood of that committee and New Hampshire college to co-operate.

The large reception room in the Woman's Building was filled, but the importance of the subject and the food situation now becoming so threatening should have brought out an audience to crowd the hall and adjoining rooms. Miss Emerson frankly stated that Portsmouth fell far below other cities of the state in the attendance at this series of food demonstrations, and even in our neighboring town of Dover her audience at a lecture numbered 200 women and she urged the women of this city to realize the seriousness of the food situation and to realize it is to grow worse. The young men are making sacrifices and responding to their country's call and the plough stands in the fields as the former left it. She said American women should realize that there is a war work for all to do and all should be about it, getting to be shakers but not let's say each day, today I have done my best by my government and its soldiers.

Miss Emerson made it plain that women are expected to do much if the war is to be won and they wish to be living examples, and back up our fighting men. She said club women, especially, were supposed to be active in the war work; to stick to it and not fall down but to be living examples. The Massachusetts club women in a telegram to Mr. Hoover pledged themselves to do their very best in food conservation and New Hampshire women should feel the same.

The speaker paid a glowing tribute to the French women, the most heroic in the world today, and told of the men's tasks they willingly perform and are hatched to the plow today, as agriculture depends on them and it will also now depend on the women here. She said we must develop the spirit of the French women and do the simple duties of every day willingly, loyally, and that makes for efficiency. American women should not think of having ease and luxury at the sacrifice of the French women. We cannot feed a soldier and starve his family and we must also feed America's sons who are now fighting on the field of war. Unless we work for the call of humanity we will suffer humiliation. We should lay aside personal rights, the speaker said and work with such a zeal to win the war that our names may be on the roll of honor and we can feel we did our utmost to aid in this struggle that right may conquer might.

Mrs. Lucius H. Thayer made a few remarks on the food situation in England, quoting from a letter written by a New York friend who was staying there, her husband being at the head of a shipping industry in that country. The letter was dated February 23 and the writer said there was nothing else talked of in England but the war. The sugar allowance for each person was a half a pound a week and butter could be obtained at the hotels but once a day. There was no milk whatever and very little meat served, but fish, fruit and vegetables were plentiful.

Mrs. Mary I. Wood the next speaker, paid a well deserved compliment to Miss Emerson's ability, saying she was one of the best demonstrators in the state and Portsmouth was fortunate in having the privilege of hearing her. Mrs. Wood spoke on the necessity of food conservation and the release of such food stuffs that are necessary to send abroad to the Allies and our own fighting men overseas. She told of the need of wheat, saying that France very nearly lives on bread and without wheat flour, is almost helpless.

The speaker laid stress on the fact that North America is called upon to feed the world and we who stay at home have the task to make democracy safe for the world. She told of the crying need of food for the Allies and of the necessity of the people of the United States to use substitutes.

What to use with, or in place of, wheat flour was discussed, corn meal, New England's product heading the list and this she said should be used as much as possible. She told of recipes to make "Victory Bread" which allowed a saving of one-third or more flour. Rye is also to be conserved, Mrs. Wood said, and this cannot be sold as a wheat substitute as it is the next best thing to wheat to send abroad. Cream of wheat was among the breakfast cereals which is sold without regulation, and this is one of the first solid foods of a baby's diet. Shredded wheat is made of the soft wheat which cannot be used for bread, so this does not come under the food regulations. The speaker said at present one cannot buy much potato flour, but potatoes may be used in making bread. Rice flour may be used for bread and corn flour is a kind highly recommended for cake.

During the afternoon Miss Emerson baked war bread and various kinds of war foods on a gas range. She read the recipes to the audience and when the food was taken from the stove it was passed around that all could sample it. Among the recipes given were barley bread and other kinds made without wheat substitutes, oatmeal cookies, Scotch oat crackers, vegetable chowder, parsnip stew, patriotic hash, escalloped apples and onions, bird's nest pudding.

Miss Emerson spoke especially about foods which are body builders and of the need of milk, fruit and vegetables being largely included in one's diet.

At the lecture here next month, Miss Emerson will speak on "Menu Building."

PEOPLE'S OPINIONS

Talks About Service Flag

Editor: A Civil war veteran recently sent a communication to your paper touching on the abuse of the American flag and the wretched condition of Old Glory which he noted in this city. He should have mentioned the condition of some of the service flags, one in particular on Daniel street which has not been flying at full length for many weeks from the fact that it is hard and fast around the ropes which hold it.

It does seem that the organization which honors its members by holding a service flag should have interest enough to see that it is properly displayed and cared for.

ENLISTED MEN ENTERTAINED

The entertainment given last evening for the enlisted men in charge of the Girls' Patriotic League proved especially pleasing and the audience showed its appreciation by marked applause after each number. The program included a solo dance by Mrs. Harry Caswell, vocal solos by Miss Mary Shaw, accompanied by Miss Doris Kaula, readings by Miss Eunice Loring, and piano selections by Miss Florence Marshall.

Following the program a social time was enjoyed, games forming the principal diversion. Coffee and doughnuts were served, members of the league acting as servers.

Dependable Merchandise At Reasonable Prices

Never to sell "cheap" merchandise at any price, but always to sell dependable merchandise at prices that are just and reasonable—that are as low as consistently possible—is the ambition of Everybody's.

In this Just-Before-Easter Selling there is not a single "cheap" item, though there are many inexpensive, dependable pieces of merchandise. Everything has been selected with care—stocks are fresh and new—styles are correct.

Apparel and Accessory Purchases made at Everybody's are wise expenditures, for they assure maximum value at minimum price.

After the fire that swept the Y. M. C. A. building last winter and caused many thousands of dollars damage to our stock, we sold every article in the store. We have put in a stock of merchandise that is up to the minute and the styles are the latest creations of the best manufacturers in the country. The quality of every garment and accessory in our store is guaranteed to be the best that money will buy in new goods that are the last word in tailoring and mode.

We repeat—there is not an article in the store that has been in stock over a month and the most of it has reached us less than two weeks ago.

The prices are the lowest in the state for quality clothing, and the benefit to purchasers is not only in new styles and superior quality of fabrics, but the prices are a genuine proof of good buying. Only nationally known brands of clothing, from responsible concerns, are sold in this store.

ELIOT BOY LOST ALL IN FIRE IN FRANCE

The following letter will be of interest to the friends of George Devos of Eliot:

Somewhere in France, March 5, 1918.

My dear Miss B.—
Received your very welcome letter and believe me was glad to hear from you. It helps to cheer me up a lot to get plenty of letters from friends at home. I have written to you once, but the letter may have been lost, but please don't stop writing if you don't get all my letters; for you have a better chance to get them and more time than I do. Besides, we have to be very careful what we say.

I have been acting as orderly for Lieut. Eaton and Lieut. White. Their barracks, burned down and all my things went with the rest. That leaves me rather short for clothing and other necessary articles, some of which I miss very much.

That sweater that Mrs. D. sent I have not received as yet, and probably some other soldier is wearing it now. I have written several letters to her and have received no reply, and I can't account for it. Is she mad, or what is the matter?

It is very hard to get American supplies here, especially tobacco and cigarettes, so we have to send home for them and don't get half that we need for.

I wish I was in Eliot; I could get what I want there without depending on someone else. How I would like to be there this morning! It is very cold here.

I have been up to the front line trenches and arrived back safely; I enjoyed it very much.

Will close now. Hope to hear from you soon, and please write every week at least.

I remain, as ever,
George Devos, Co. F, 103 U. S. Infantry, A. E. F.

Boys and girls of Eliot get busy and write to George; he has no mother to write to him.

The English farm girl is now working as farrier and blacksmith. A Herefordshire farmer applied recently for someone to shoe horses and make and repair farm implements, and the women's organization were equal to the occasion.

TOUCH OF HOME LIFE FOR THE ENLISTED MEN

An effort is being made among the church and club women in this city to give a good number of the enlisted men of the army and navy a touch of home life on Easter day and many of our citizens are to invite one or more to dinner on Sunday.

At the food conservation lecture by Miss Emerson, held at the Woman's Building yesterday afternoon, Miss Martha S. Kimball asked the audience to do a bit of patriotic service on Easter in this way, saying a number of the young enlisted men who attend church in this city, stated they would feel rather lonely on Easter Sunday away from the home church and friends.

It has been the custom when possible in one or more of the local churches for several months to have a hospitality committee who welcome the men of the army and navy who attend these church services and introduce them to parishioners who feel it a privilege to invite them to their homes as dinner guests on Sunday.

The church services on Easter day will be attended by many enlisted men and local church goes have a splendid chance to give some lad in blue or khaki a touch of home life by inviting him to be their dinner guest.

Those who wish to help in this way may notify Mr. H. Board of the Food-Conservation Commission, phone 1316, or Miss Martha S. Kimball.

LEFT FOR CAMP DEVENS THIS MORNING

The men in the special draft from this district, reported to the local War Board on Thursday afternoon and were given their last instructions. They were also visited by a committee from the Red Cross work room and each man fitted out with sweater and other things of the knitted wear that they are allowed to have in camp.

They were put up for the night by the local board, that is, all from out of the city and they left from the board's office shortly after eight o'clock this morning in time to catch the 8.44 train for Rockingham Junction where they changed for Camp Devens. There will be twelve men leave from this city and one from Lowell.

HEAVY PENALTY FOR HOARDING COAL

Local Regulations and Applications Blanks
Furnished Dealers---False Statement to be Prosecuted.

There will be a penalty of either two dollars in jail or $4,000 fine, attached to any attempt to hoard coal by falsifying the application made to the coal dealer about the amount of coal required for the next year.

The local Coal Committee has placed in the hands of all of the dealers the application blanks for this year's supply of coal. These blanks which must be made out by everybody, call for a signed statement of the amount of coal that you used during the past year and your needs for this year.

In no case may a person get more coal than he used this year, but they may order less, and in all cases they will get two-thirds of the amount ordered. That is, if a person orders nine tons of coal, he will be given six, whenever the dealer can get to it, and then later in the fall if there is plenty of coal he will be given the other third.

All applications must be signed and they will be taken by the dealer in order they are received, unless the applicant wishes to delay, and as the coal arrives the orders will be filled during the summer months.

If a person makes a false statement, or if the person gets more than his supply of coal by using more than one dealer he will be liable to prosecution. All complaints in this respect will be turned over by the Local Board to the Federal authorities who will make all investigations and all prosecutions, and the local board will not have any opinion about turning over complaints made in the proper way.

At the present time there is not enough coal here to allow the dealers to start filling any large orders, but the Fuel Committee have been assured that the government will provide a sufficient supply will be on hand during the summer months.

Even if a person only gets two-thirds of this year's supply, and next winter is a normal winter, he will have nearly enough, as there are few people who have not burned almost a third more coal this winter than last.

That does it should be held to strict account, so the labor organization should hereafter be expected itself to give the fullest measure of service, and while jealousy safe-guarding the safety of its members to do so by building up and not by pulling down the efficiency and productiveness of the business.

Friends, it would neither be possible nor desirable for me to try to set forth in detail the governmental methods through which I think it is necessary for our great republic to work out its salvation. All I can do and all it is desirable that I should do is to roughly outline to set before you, the principles that should govern our actions. This I have done.

But while it is evident that if we are to face the new era with success we must try new methods, it is also evident that we must stand by the old home virtues that in their sum make up the standard of individual and national character. No organization, no legislation, no possible governmental action will avail if the man does not have the right stuff in him. Down at the bottom the commonwealth must rest on the character of the individual citizen and this he must himself develop, and if he fails to develop it he must not seek to throw the blame on somebody else. The action of the government must normally be of such type as to tell against that degeneracy of character which comes from habitually lying down on the government instead of trusting primarily to a hard and virile self-reliance. There must be some exceptions to this rule, where we use our collective power to prevent individual wrong-doing or individual suffering; but even these must be developed from, as a fundamental basis, the doctrines of the Declaration of Independence, the principles of Washington and Lincoln, rather than to individual rights and duties, and not from the theories of the Prussian autocrat, which has adopted Marxism as a staff for absolutism, and which treats man as made for the state.

There was a large gathering at the special meeting of St. Andrew's Lodge No. 66, A. F. and A. M. on Thursday evening, the occasion being the annual visitation of the Grand Master Alphon W. Hayes with District Deputy Grand Lecturer William B. Randall of this city.

The Master Mason degree was conferred and the work was followed by a banquet.

SPORT NOTES OF INTEREST

The snow has about disappeared from the playgrounds diamond and shortly the cry "Play ball" will be heard from Umpire Walter Woods. The Sunset League schedule cannot start any too soon to suit the fans and it will not be long before the Congress street "curbstone arguments" will be in order. Everythink points to a prosperous season and some of the close followers of the league predict that 1918 will see the fastest ball games ever played in this city. While many of the familiar faces of former years will not be seen in the lineups of the various clubs, their places will be taken by strangers now employed in Portsmouth. No player in the league will be missed any more than Bill Brackett of the P. A. C., now in the U. S. army.

It now seems probable that Johnny Wilson, the New York boxer, who won from Pink Crosbie in this city a few weeks ago, will again be seen here at a later date. A Vermont boxer, now stationed at one of the local forts, wishes to meet Wilson. The man from the Green Mountain State is a former well known professional boxer, who will be remembered by followers of the mitt game. He has appeared in bouts in Boston on several occasions and holds a decision over Jay Egan. He says he is in his old time form and if such is the case, the soldier boy should be able to give Wilson a real argument. The soldier's name will be announced later.

Considerable agitation has entered the wrestling game in Manchester. The "syndicate" has invaded that city and Pete Forrest who has been promoting the bouts in a very satisfactory manner for a number of years, will have to buck the trust. The coming Gardner-Kilonski bout is to be staged by the new syndicate.

Jim Poullos was recently booked by the Manchester wrestling "syndicate" to meet Pat McCarthy, the Boston wrestler. The Manchester Mirror has the following about the proposed bout: "Pat McCarthy, who was billed (so rumor has it) to meet Jim Poullos in this city April 3, can get all the fun he wants provided the meeting upon that date is permitted to be held. Kid Lavigne will meet him, so Forrest says, and some coin will be gathered in town that Lavigne will trim him. Query: If Poullos can beat McCarthy (which he certainly can do) what would Poullos do to Lavigne? Think it over, Punny game, isn't it, when you look at it through your binoculars?"

Baseball will be played on an extensive scale at army and navy training camps this year. The government wants all the men to play baseball. Each station and camp will have a representative team which will be selected by elimination, and will play out schedules that are now being drawn up, with amateur, professional and college nines from the nearby cities. It is also possible that the annual training camp teams may play teams from nearby army cantonments.

Cyclone Burns and Tom Drank will try it over again at Freeman's hall next week. In their previous match in this city some weeks ago, Cy tossed Tom out of the ring and the latter landed right on his "bean." Tom was all through for that evening and the bout was awarded to Burns.

St. Anselm's College second team will meet Haverhill High at Haverhill on April 27. The college also should have no trouble in winning. Haverhill also has contests arranged with Andover Academy and St. John's Prep.

Plesina, the noted western wrestler, is now claiming the title and he will lay $1000 that he can throw either Caddoock or Zbyzsko twice in 20 minutes, or will guarantee to throw any other wrestler in the world the best two out of three. He'll even let Caddoock, Stecher or Zbyzsko have their favorite hold to start the match. That ought to hold some of them for a while.

George Tuohy of Boston, will referee the match between John Kiloni and Pink Gardner at Manchester next Wednesday evening. The rules of the agreement stipulate that neither Kiloni or Gardner shall take part in another bout before the meeting at Manchester.

Packey McFarland, now a full-fledged middleweight is doing his bit for several charitable causes of the war by engaging in boxing exhibitions with Ed. Rucker, a Louisville, Ky. boxing scribe. In several Kentucky cities and towns Packey is also boxing instructor at Camp Zachary Taylor. Although Packey has been out of the game for nearly three years, he is just 22. McFarland takes the best of care of himself, and at short notice would be able to hold his own with the best of them in the middleweight class.

For the first time in his career, Jack Dillon, the Hoosier Bearcat, hit the canvas in his bout with Steamboat Kent, the other evening. Steamboat launched a broadside that caught Jack on the jaw and he hit the floor with a thud. Jack was up in a few seconds after and went at Scott like a lion for the remainder of the bout, which was declared a draw. Jack has been fighting for ten years and men like Jimmy Gardner, Jack Twin Sullivan, Battling Levinsky, Harry Grob, Frank Moran, Billy Miske, Frank Klaus, Hugo Kelley, Jim Flynn, Gunboat Smith and Mike Gibbons were unable to accomplish the feat performed by the mediocre Scott.

Joe Egan was a close observer at the Hobson-Ratner match in Boston Wednesday night. Egan and Hobson may come together probably when the Three A club moves into the Arena next month. Egan got a chance at the welterweight championship at one of the western clubs next month.

Tom Sharkey, old time heavyweight pugilist, and once rated as a man made wealthy by his ring engagements, is working as an armed guard at a New York munition plant. Sharkey, once proprietor of glided cafes in New York and in San Francisco, paid for with his earnings, is now reported to be earning $5 a day.

FAST MATCH FOR NEXT WEEK

There is a great interest being taken here in the wrestling bout to be held here next Wednesday evening, between "Cyclone" Burns and Tom Drank.

The local fans will remember the great bout of a few weeks ago between these two men, in which Drank after getting the first fall, was thrown out of the ring by Burns after an hour's wrestling and stunned so that he could not go back, thereby giving the match to Burns.

He has been since that time seeking a return match and so confident is he that he can throw Burns that he was most anxious to wrestle the winner to take the entire purse, but Burns would not agree to this and a division of 75 to the winner and 25 to the loser has been agreed upon. Both are wonderful wrestlers, the best of their weight in the world and it should be a whirlwind match, that no true fan can afford to miss.

You head will be clear, your tongue clean, breath right, stomach sweet and your liver and thirty feet of bowels active. Get a box at any drug store and straighten up. Stop the headaches, bilious spells, bad colic and bad days—Brighten up. Cheer up! Mothers should give a whole Cascaret to children when cross, bilious, feverish or if tongue is coated—they are harmless—never gripe or sicken.

WOMEN WORKERS HURT BY EXPLOSION

(By Associated Press)

Squamtown, Mass., March 28.—A series of explosions in the plant of the International Explosive company, engaged in making primers and detonators for the army, probably fatally injured two women and seriously injured a third, while the plant was wrecked.

There were fifteen women engaged in the work on the inspection table when some explosive went off. Miss Nellie Hemmady and Dorothy Savage were possibly fatally injured and Mrs. Nora Sawyer was burned. When the explosion occurred the women made a wild dash for the doors, while a crowd of men in the other part of the room rushed through the flames to the aid of the three women lying on the floor and got them from the building.

LIBERTY LOAN QUOTA MADE PUBLIC

(By Associated Press)

New York, March 28.—The quota for each of the Federal Reserve districts will be expected to subscribe in the third Liberty Loan was announced by Secretary McAdoo this evening. New York is expected to subscribe 30 per cent of the entire $3,000,000,000 or $900,000,000.

In readjusting the districts on the valuations and wealth, Boston was shown to have been over assessed in the second loan and now it has been reduced from ten per cent to 8.12 per cent or $250,000,000.

GIRLS! MOISTEN A CLOTH AND DRAW IT THROUGH HAIR

It becomes beautifully soft, wavy, abundant and glossy at once.

Save your hair! All dandruff goes and hair stops coming out.

Surely try a "Danderine Hair Cleanser" if you wish to immediately double the beauty of your hair. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; this will cleanse the hair of dirt, dandruff or any excessive oil—in a few minutes you will be amazed. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and abundant and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance.

Besides beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; invigorates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

You can surely have pretty, soft, lustrous hair and lots of it, if you will know a few cents for a bottle of Danderine's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.

Save your hair! Keep it looking charming and beautiful. You will say this was the best 25 cents you ever spent.

MILK AGAIN IN AVIATION CORPS

When the price of milk should be dropping for the summer comes the announcement that it is to be increased to 13 cents a quart the first of the month. At a hearing before the Federal Board in Boston the whole sale milk dealers said that the present situation was a second Klondike to the milk producers, also that there was a constant falling off in the sale of milk owing to the high price, and they predicted that if an increase was allowed it would fall off half as much more.

The increase in the price of milk has its effect upon the children, especially the children of the poor. Of late years there has been a material reduction in the quantity of milk given children owing to the constant in-

LYONS A VICTIM OF PNEUMONIA

Luther Donovan Lyons, a first class fireman on the U. S. S. South Dakota, died at the naval hospital on Thursday morning with pneumonia.

Lyons was the young man who was being sought by the Dover police for assault upon Officer Trask of that city, in which the officers' bill was taken from him and he was beaten up with a blood poisoning set in on the officer and he came near dying.

Lyons had been taken to Dover and identified by Officer Trask and while the Dover authorities were taking the matter of his release up with the Secretary of the Navy, he was taken sick and sent to the hospital. Later an order was received from the Secretary of the Navy to turn the man over to the civilian authorities for trial, and Rear Admiral Bouch informed them that as soon as the man was discharged from the hospital he would be turned over.

Lyons enlisted from Cosmopolis, Washington, and he was born April 11, 1895. He is the fifth or sixth of the fireman crew of this ship who have died at the hospital within the past ten days from pneumonia.

ATTENDING A WASHINGTON CONFERENCE

Messrs. Joseph W. Hodgdon and W. H. Chick of this city and Manager W. E. They also planned to stop over to attend a meeting in New York.

AMERICAN LABOR PLEDGE TO WIN WAR

(By Associated Press)

New York, March 28.—To make known to the British and French labor leaders the American Labor stand in this great war, a delegation of nine labor leaders representing the American Federation of Labor will soon sail for England and France.

The American mission will tell the British and French that organized labor in this country is pledged to the prosecution of this war to a victory for the allies and that during the war it will not hold any conference with any enemy leaders.

SEN. GALLINGER SAYS HE WILL RETIRE

Senator Gallinger of New Hampshire, the Republican Senate leader, Thursday received many congratulations and flowers upon his eighty-first birthday. He was born in Cornwall, Ontario, in 1837.

During celebrations in the Senate by Democratic and Republican spokesmen, Senator Gallinger indicated his plans to retire when his term expires in 1921.

ONE WAY READY THIS WEEK

Few people of this city have any conception of the great amount of work that is being done at the Atlantic Corporation at Freeman's Point. There are now about 1500 men employed and this is being continually being added to.

The first of the great shipways will be finished this week and several others are well along, while the fill for the docks on the south side of the water front is continually growing, and it is rapidly reaching a point where the docks will be started.

Juice of Lemons! How to Make Skin White and Beautiful

At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quart of the most wonderful lemon skin softener and complexion beautifier, by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of ordinary white. Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as sallowness, freckles and tan and is the ideal skin softener, smoothener and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It naturally should help to soften, freshen, bleach and bring out the roses and beauty of any skin. It is wonderful to smoothen rough, red hands.

PILES FAIL TO HOLD ICE FLOES IN PISCATAQUA.

Dover, March 28.—The failure of the system of piles driven across the Piscataqua river to hold back the ice floes from Little and Great Bays caused the abandonment of the plan and the withdrawal of the steam pile driver which has been working more than a week.

Large cakes of ice, swept down river by the swift tidal currents, broke many of the piles, which, it had been hoped, would hold back the ice until it melted to harmless thinness. It is said that efforts to prevent further damage to the Dover Point and Portsmouth railroad bridges by driving piles has cost about $1000. Dynamiting large ice floes will be continued.

ANOTHER SAILOR'S DEATH FROM PNEUMONIA.

George Milton Jolt, aged 24, a sailor from the South Dakota, who died at the Naval Hospital on Thursday morning from pneumonia, will be sent to his home in Coma, Texas, for interment.

Have you any relatives from this city in the military service? If so, send him notice to The Herald for the Roll of Honor.

FOR THE BABY

Have you seen the wonderful, new white enamel bassinets? They are like a small crib, have low wheels with rubber tires, making them easy to run over thresholds from one room to another. They do not take up much room, they have a pretty, flowered cretonne covered mattress and are comfy for the baby.

You are invited to make a careful inspection of our cribs. We have all of the approved styles and they still conform to the standard originally set for them, the niceties of excellent design and the worth of superior workmanship and material are being maintained regardless of the call for men from the factories.

Something new in pillows for the crib—The Billow Washable Pillow. Most pillows have never been washed. The Billow pillow can be washed. They are worthy of the present-day sanitary bedroom. Then there is the laced cover which can be washed even more frequently than the pillow.

We want healthy babies—babies we are glad to have in our homes and proud to see on our streets. While considering our own children let us not forget the poor little tots in Europe. Let us do all we can to help.

"The Best for Babies" is our motto.

MECHANIC TO LEAVE NAVY YARD

Luke Ashworth Accepts Position on the Pacific Coast.

Luke Ashworth for the past eight years, master shipsmith at the navy yard, has resigned and his resignation will take effect on Wednesday next. He leaves the Portsmouth navy yard to accept a position with the Seattle Shipbuilding and Engine Company at Seattle, one of the leading ship construction firms of the country.

Mr. Ashworth came to the Portsmouth navy yard from the Cleveland City Forge Company and succeeded the late George Muchmore. Since assuming that position he has ranked as an expert mechanic and the smith shop has been much improved under his supervision. He is much esteemed by the men of his department and has made many warm friends in Portsmouth since he became a resident and has taken a great interest in everything that pertained to city affairs. He has been a member of the Portsmouth Yacht club and a most ardent worker for that organization. In his departure for the west coast he has the well-wishes of everybody who enjoys his acquaintance.

Tuesday, April 2. That's the date. Watch for the big Chamber of Commerce membership drive; it's coming. "Why should I join the Chamber of Commerce?" This question is frequently asked by the business man when asked to join the organization. The answer is—because the Chamber of Commerce is the one organization whose sole duty it is to do things for the good of Portsmouth. It takes up questions that no individual could or would attempt. It seeks to improve local business conditions, to bring in new industries, to maintain service departments for its members and to advance the interests of the city in every possible way. Every business and professional man in the city should be a member and should look upon it as a privilege to contribute a little of his time and energy to the upbuilding and improvement of the city's welfare. The door is wide open; everybody is welcome. We want to make 1918 a banner year for the city. Let's all boost Portsmouth, then. Let's begin by making the Chamber of Commerce more successful and therefore more popular. When the representative of the membership committee of the Chamber calls upon you Tuesday morning give him a moment of your time, then hand him your name as a member and you will know that you are lending the weight of your influence toward the advancement of your city. Think it over; it's worth while.

AN ENTHUSIASTIC
MEETINGHon. Andrew L. Felker Makes
Stirring Address Before
Local Grange.

An enthusiastic meeting of Strawberry Bank Grange was held Thursday evening with a large attendance. The third and fourth degrees were conferred on a large class of candidates, after which a salad supper was served. The program of the evening consisted of selections by Burns' orchestra, and vocal solos by Miss Dorothy Thompson. A stirring patriotic address was given by Hon. Andrew L. Felker, commissioner of agriculture of New Hampshire. Mr. Felker spoke upon the great need of increased food production at this time, and his address was received with much enthusiasm.

Beautiful tableaux were presented in connection with the degree work. The program was concluded with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner."

During the meeting the Grange went on record as being in favor of a national and state prohibition, with only one dissenting vote.

The next meeting will be in charge of the men of the grange and will be held April 11.
